Come and enjoy a simple and direct process of painting called Touch Drawing. Individuals will be amazed at the images that arise from their inner creative self as fingers glide along over tissue paper. By centering on the process of creativity, not the product, we free ourselves to connect to our heart, opening a pathway to self-expression. No prior art experience needed no rules, and no mess. Students will learn the process of Touch Drawing each week and can choose to enhance their drawings with mixed media, journaling and mounting. Please bring a paint shirt.
